Councils

The Executive Council is the highest official body in our school. In May of each year the Junior and Sophomore homeroom teachers choose several students whom they believe will be good, intelligent leaders. However, the final choice of two from each group is made by the students. Thus each fall our council of four with the guidance of three faculty members accept or veto any of the suggestions of the Activities or Student Councils. This year's group consisted of Gregory Gebert, president; Franklin Fox, secretary; Norman Ottley, Robert Schmidlinger, and the faculty advisers, Miss Casale, Miss Feuchter, and Mr. Lushear.

THE HIGH COMMAND

MR. VINSON'S FRIENDS

AMBASSADORS OF GOOD TIMES

The Activities Council under the sage guidance of Miss Dayton, Miss Baker, and Mr. Lake figure out the school budget and arrange the price of the student ticket accordingly. Each student in buying a Booster ticket provides the school with funds and insures himself of a year's fun. This ticket enables students to attend all home football games, to receive cut rates on all other tickets, to have a newspaper each week, to go to special assembly programs, and to be admitted to a class party or dance. The council is made up of students representing each of the major activities in the school.

Our little "Gloom dodgers," the Social Committee, succeeded in brightening up the gym into a beautiful palacial dance hall and thus are to be congratulated on their work for they showed ingenuity and good taste. They suffered untold agonies in their valiant efforts to liven up the place. The first of their series of social enterprises was at Hallowe'en when the Freshmen had their party. This was followed within three weeks by the Sophomore Barn Dance which brought out the hill-billy instincts of the Union Sophomore Farmers. This winter the Juniors enjoyed for the first time the rare privilege of inviting foreigners (outside guests!) to their class dance which delighted them and their friends. Last, but not least, the crowning event of any Senior's high school career, was the Senior Prom. The Committee really outdid themselves at this top event of the year for the gym became a hall of distinction and attractiveness.

Edward Roos, William Wienkop, Arlene Frohling, Betty Griffen, Charles Haythorne, Emma Tretola, William Cleveland, and Joyce Enos were this year's ambassadors of good times under the talented direction of Miss Dayton, faculty adviser.

THE LITTLE CONGRESS

The Student Council is a representative group which sets school policies and regulations. Members are chosen by each homeroom and they meet the first Tuesday and the last Thursday of the month. Hall monitors and the cafeteria squad were created by this organization to keep law and order. No action can be taken unless it is approved by the Executive Council. The president elected by the students this year for the A. M. Council was Dick Partl; for the P. M. Council, Eleanore Badwine.

HIGHWAY PATROL

Squads

The traffic squad is Union High's private police force. It is their job to keep the students moving, to prohibit students from going to their lockers, or from taking drinks while passing to classes. If a stranger were to enter the High School building during the four minute period between classes, it wouldn't be a surprising thing if he heard cries such as "No drinks! One line! No lockers!" These warnings are very familiar to Union High School students but they make little impression on some of our recalcitrant members.

This group is Miss Gross' special headache for it is she who has to check on them! Carl Mehlhorn is the student captain and Norman Fischer his assistant.

JUNIOR POLICE

THE INCENDIARY GLADIATORS

Twice a month the Fire Squad boys declare a few minutes' respite for all of us from the daily grind of lessons by conducting fire drills. Each member had his assigned post from where he hurried the reluctant students outdoors. The reluctance was due to the fact that another minute might pass before they were hustled back to classes again. Sometimes an exit was blocked off in order to drill us into becoming resourceful without being frightened to choose the next nearest exit. To be sure that there would be no disorder the fellow at that post directed the lines.

Mr. Henry was the adviser for the A. M. Squad and the student captain was Norman Fischer. In the afternoon school Mr. Kordys was the adviser and his captain was Edward Bush.

We respect the work these boys did for if any emergency should have arisen, they would have had the sole responsibility for emptying the school in the shortest time.

THE LITTLE FLAMES

The Usher Squad boys have many chores. However their biggest job is during the football season when they collect tickets, put up and take down the canvas which is placed around the field, set up the loud-speaking system, reserve seats for the band, and see that Willie Butt behaves himself.

Each Friday, or any other assembly day, the boys assumed the responsibility of seating eight hundred students in seven hundred and fifty seats. (With extra chairs they can do it!) They also escorted Union's swank to their reserved seats the night of the annual play, "Spring Green."

Miss Durling is the adviser for both the A. M. and P. M. Squads. The officers for the A. M. group were captain, Edward Roos, and co-captain, Harry Winn; and for the P. M. group, captain, Ronald Roemer, and co-captain, Glen Herrigel.

All members deserve our thanks for their faithfulness and cooperation all year.

MOTHER'S LITTLE HELPERS

HAVE YOUR TICKETS READY, PLEASE!

SCHEDULE HACKERS

Whenever assembly calls echoed through the halls of U. H. S., a group of busy bees began to work. Harry Lawrence was the bell-pusher who called the classes to the auditorium and Larry Martin prepared to walk down the aisle with the flag escorted by the Messrs. Melick and Melhorn. Peggy Gotham was our pianist and Frank Fox, assuming an angelic pose, read the Bible. Dr. Sharratt's watchful eye as adviser detected any laxness on the part of this group. Gregory Gebert as president of the Executive Council acted as Master of Ceremonies. The afternoon squad included Glenn Herrigel, Eleanore Badwini, Richard Ulrich, George Van Buskirk, and Hal Neal. Both groups had the help of the Usher Squads.

At several of our assemblies we had professional speakers and artists but the students provided the greater amount of amusement for us. Among the professionals we had Tommy Tucker, sound effects man and imitator; the Bentley Trio, the xylophone; Pat Paterson, cowboy; Dr. Fred Young, the use of English; Al Priddy, animal trainer; Judge Bale, juvenile delinquency; and Senor Rafael Herrera, our "good neighbor" Spanish professor, Venezuela.

The three dramatic organizations each presented a program as well as the bands, glee clubs, and cheer-leaders. Friday was always the day of days for us: entertainment, a respite from one of our classes each week, and the last day before the blessed week-end retreat!

LES PETITES

The staff of the Odds and Ends, some forty-five strong, have done it again. For the eighth consecutive year the paper has won first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association's competition. The editors whose Herculean efforts have produced this rating are: News, Elsa Hogg-lund, Paul Hartmann; Features, Pat Zick; Editorials, Carle Curtis; Sports, Francis Gentile, Lew Chapman; Art, Vivian Jannett; Headlines, Gerrie Borok, Bob Schiff; Stenciling, Jean Moore; Mimeograph, Ray Berberich; and Exchange, Madelon Springer.

The favorite expression of Miss Purcell, the faculty adviser, was, "Oh my!" This was used often as people paraded through the main office of the Odds and Ends apparently mistaking the small room for the Holland Tunnel. Although to the outsider confusion seemed to reign in the tiny room, a great deal of work was done or else you wouldn't have had your weekly news.

The paper was published every Thursday except on holidays from October through May under the auspices of the Booster Association.

LIBEL MAKERS

The circulation was about 1400, a figure which is envied by the Union Register!

Special recognition should be given to Mr. Henry and his patient typists who are blamed for errors, that if traced by Sherlock Holmes, undoubtedly were made by the inner circle, the editors. The news brought to us by the warriors of the press contain the originality and resourcefulness needed to produce America's future journalists.

AND
—BEWARE!

Our future John Barrymores and Judith Andersons have delved into the intricacies of fine acting by producing such remarkable plays as "Accent of Revenge" and "Don't Tell a Soul". These talented groups led by Miss Brophy and Miss Mahoney worked very hard to produce entertaining programs. They showed great originality in their satire. The repercussions and after effects of "Accent of Revenge" will long be remembered by the upper classmen, especially by a small group of Union's highly trained athletes.

The members of the Sophomore Dramatic Club who on February 21, presented "Accent of Revenge" were Grace Colgan, Lee Lotz, Mary Caldwell, Doris Rohner, Barbara Stein, Marion Krug, and Helen Goddert. These girls should be congratulated on their excellent production.

The Freshmen cast of "Don't Tell a Soul" was Marie Carpenito, Irene Mitts, Iris Reichert, Rosemarie Haws, Nancy Kennet, Theresa Stohl, Lois Hagen, Jean Orlando, and Marianne Stein.

Mr. Lushear's "busy little beavers" work tirelessly in the performance of their menial tasks. Their slogan is "Be prepared", and they carry it through to the nth degree. Whenever a play is to be produced and a stage setting is required, they turn out props that would delight the heart of any Broadway producer. One of the nicest scenes they produced this year was the one used in the Christmas pageant. This was an interior church scene and showed excellent creative ability on the part of this fine group of stalwart males. The busy beavers are Ken Diehl, Charlie Summers, Conrad Treusch, John Schmidt, and Stephen Kuken.

THE EMERGENCY
THE JOB"

THEY CARRY THE TORCH

Music

The Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. McCloskey met each Wednesday to rehearse for special programs. The officers elected were Audrey Rothfuss, president; Pat Kennet, secretary; and Zelda Rothfuss and Elsie Hartmann, librarians.

The highlight of the year, however, was the Christmas program. This was presented first at the P.T.A. meeting, and then to both assembly groups. The solos were beautifully done by Grace Ahrens, Eleanor Schofield, Florence McGhee, and Gertrude Stanill. Robert Diehl, an alumnus, delighted and surprised us all by singing one of the numbers. The scenery which was made by the Emergency Squad represented the interior of a church with the organ as the background. However, Charles Haythorn painted the scene and its effects was heightened by soft lighting. The girls went to the Westfield Crippled Children's Home after the assemblies to sing for the youngsters there. The Baccalaureate Service will conclude the work of this group, and this is held the Sunday before graduation.

Perhaps one of the most important and certainly the most active organizations our school produces is the band. Its able officers this year were president, Richard Shellmer; librarian, Margie Lehman; and Student Council representative, Jack Lindsay. Union High's Band under the direction of Mr. Nicholson, more fondly known as "Mr. Nick", was first seen parading down the field at football games. With Hope Cassel chosen as majorette a better performance and appearance couldn't be found. Since war conditions made transportation impossible, this was the first year that the band could travel to out-of-town games. A finer looking assemblage was hard to find.

Owing to split sessions the musicians gave up every Thursday night to come to school to practice. Their diligence paid off when several members placed on the All-State Band this year. We played host to this group February 22, 23, and 24. Those six students who were chosen were: George Toenes, Jack Lindsay, John Douglas, Richard Christie, clarinets; Richard Shellmer, tuba; and Charles Bradley, alternate on baritone.

THEY RAN

Boys' Sports

Union High's harriers came through in great style this past season. Our team led by Harold Wetzel and Jack Segale copped the County Meet and placed a neat third in the State Meet. Wetzel placed first and Segale fourth in the State Meet and if it hadn't been for some tough breaks, we would have taken first. As it was, our next place was twentieth, so we lost to Trenton and Bayonne on points. Union High ought to stay right up in the winning column with the other top schools like Trenton and Bayonne with Segale, Brennan and a few others coming back next year.

A beautiful trophy was presented to the school for winning the County Meet. This season was one of the better ones for our Cross Country Team and they held up our school's name through a rough schedule.

THEY ALSO RAN

Our football team went into a very tough schedule with an exceptionally light team. Even though harangued by that old "debil", injuries, the fellows showed a fine spirit and succeeded in upsetting a top team, Regional High, which was rated highly by the experts. In the rest of our games, with the exception of Carteret, who we defeated 6-0, we were simply out-played and out-weighted but not out-spirited. All in all, the fellows never gave up trying and we ended the season winning two games and losing six.

Our linesmen were Rich Reck, Al Scales, Norm Lesko, Al Mueller, Charlie Rajoppi, George Kircher, Bill Campbell, Alex Sheddon, Bill Bridgeford, Gene Macor, Lennie Heller, Bill Haller, Eddie Bigos, Howard Hansen, Stanley Krulikowski, Tony Campesi, Robert Mayer, Robert Schmittinger, Bill Wilson, Ray Estinese,

GRIDIRON'S GIFT TO THE LADIES

WILL-'EE BUTT?

This year's afternoon or Freshman-Sophomore football team showed great promise of developing into a really first class team. Their record for this season: Won, 4; Lost, 1; and Tied, 2. With most of these fellows coming back next year and with a few of this year's varsity men as a nucleus, Union High should really make an impressive showing in the coming season.

The line as a whole was very good with fellows like Ostertag, Benedict, Regan and Hemhauser as standouts. In the backfield a nice offensive combination of Riedel, Belanger and Schroetter gave out with a fast moving and tricky offensive. Nearly all these fellows were comparatively heavy and by next year with added weight and experience they should be a tough team to stop.

OUR FUTURE CHAMPS.

That group of female pulchritude going through calisthenics and seeming to like them on our football field and assembly stage were none other than this year's cheerleaders, a very charming group of young ladies led by Ginnie

Hague. They were Ella Ripley, Doris Krug, Bernice Cooney, Rose Marie Grasso, Florence White, Barbara Stein, Elsie Hartmann, and Doris Strunk. They showed plenty of spirit and were a great help in urging the fellows to try to win.

"COME ON, LOUDER! SWING THAT CHEER, RAH, RAH!"

The Goat Tenders were a gallant group of fellows who cared for our beloved mascot "Willie Butt". Willie, at times, when seeing his beloved Alma Mater being defeated by a foreign school, would give his valiant tenders quite a tussle. Thus we honor these unsung heroes of Willie's scorn, Norman Fisher, Carl Melhorn, Kenneth Diehl, and Howard Melick.

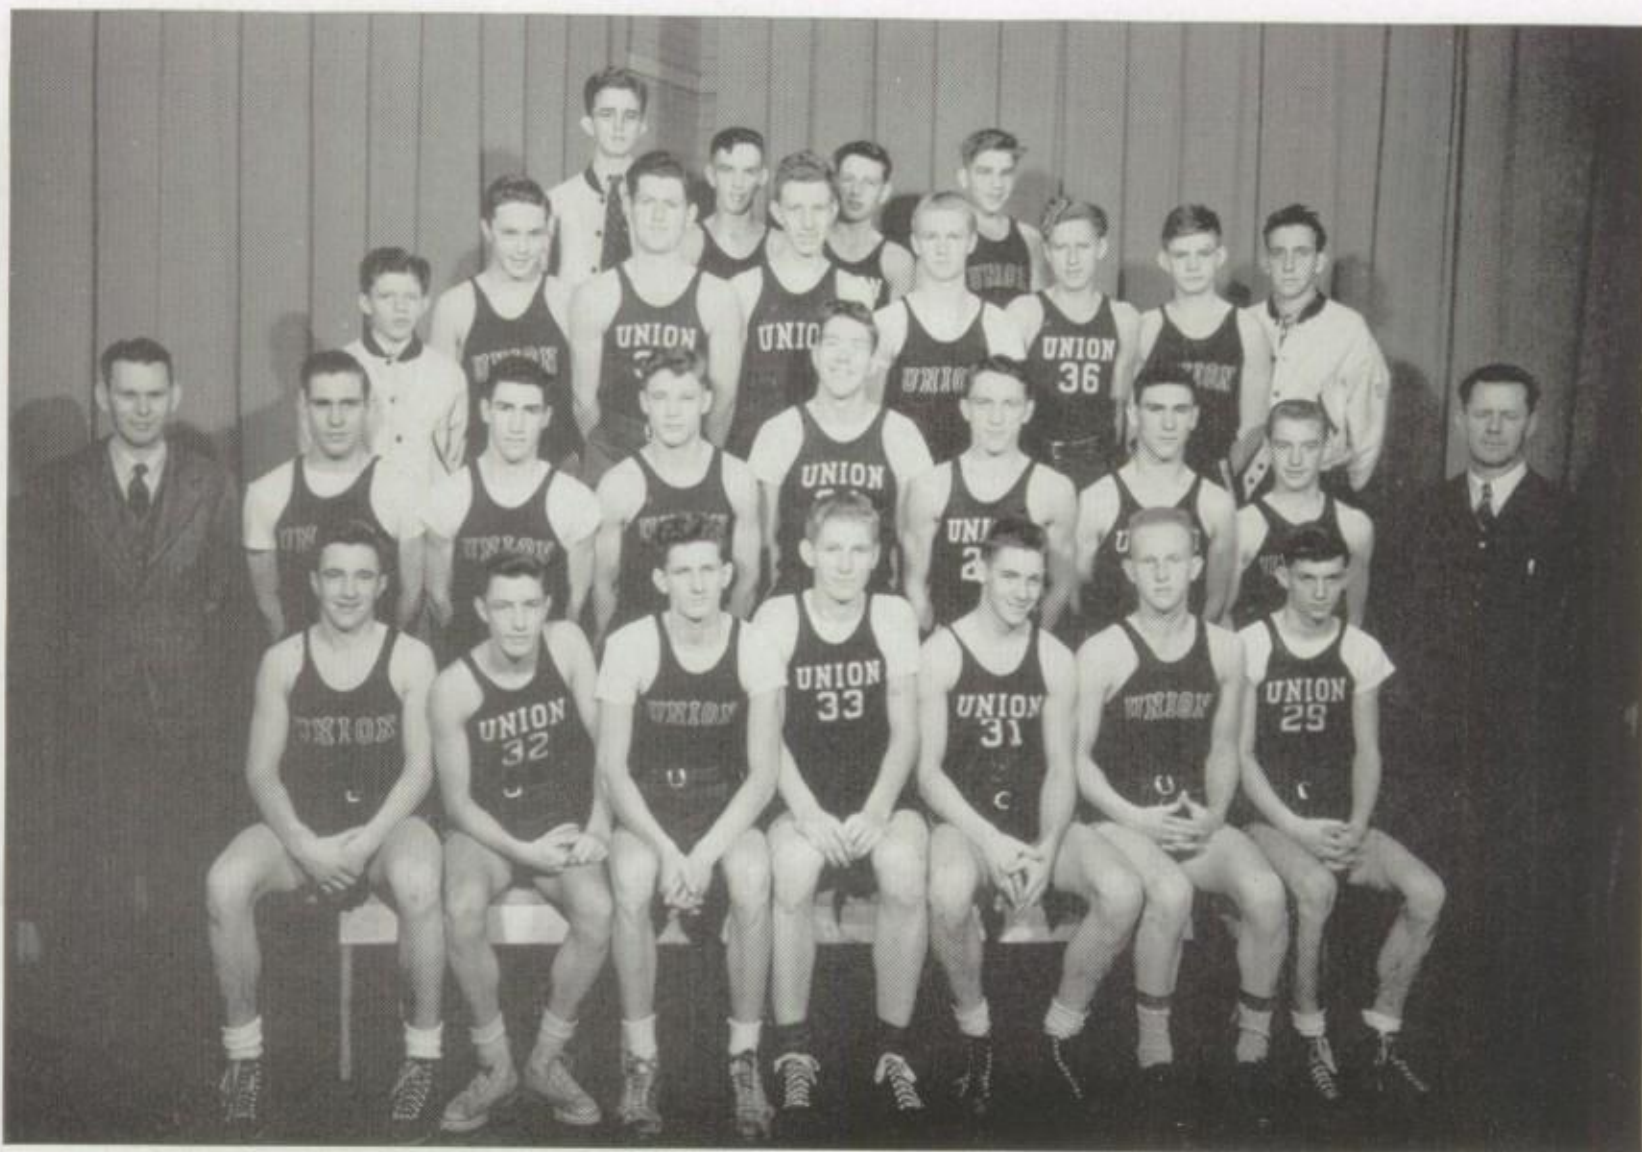

The cute little Misses you gallant football spectators saw at our football classics tossing silver batons around like a G.I. rookie tosses a rifle and going through the same kind of agony were our talented twirlers namely, Joyce Eagles, Janice Grafting, Lois McBlane, Janet Schmitt, Helen Sigler, and Jane Colley. Ordering around these cute little Misses and our noisy but talented band like a G.I. top kick was the very charming young lady, Hope Cassel, our Drum Majorette.

THE SPECTATORS' DELIGHT

SPRING SPRINTERS

THE COURT ROMPERS

Union High's Basketball team after having a slow start came through with a better than average score this year. All season they showed spurts of real championship play like our game with Roselle Park in which that school received its first defeat in sports since last spring. This year's team, though not as sensational as last year's, was nevertheless a good bunch of fellows who tried their best at all times. Frank Eckert was high scorer for the year and Dean Cassel showed phenomenal ability in foul shooting and was high man in this department. Our players were Frank Eckert, Norman Ottley, Dean Cassel, Leroy Parker, Frank Colder, Jack Segale, Don Henrikson, and Tom Leibo.

A group of fellows who performed a difficult and unheralded work were our team managers—William Wienkop, Cross Country; Richard Cristie, Charles Haythorne, Charles Griffin, Moe Diviny, Football; and Francis Gentile, Charles Griffin, Richard Christie and Moe Diviny, Basketball. Without their help Mr. Lake's coaching job would not have run as smoothly as it did. To these valiant workers we pay tribute!

Last spring Union High had a baseball team for the first time in many years. Mr. Daubner coached the team with the assistance of Mr. Maloney. Since this was the first time Union had baseball, we did not have an organized schedule. But from all indications of last year's team in practice games with other schools, this year should find Union High ending the season with a high average. Most of the fellows from last year's team are back again and with a season of playing together under their belts we can expect a fine showing. This year our baseball team is beginning practice indoors early in the season, so with the fellows getting a head start in their training we'll have the jump on many other schools who wait for the first warm weather in spring to begin work. Mr. Stahuber is our coach this year and from what the fellows say, his hitch in the service didn't subtract much from his ability to coach. So here's wishing the new coach and the team the best of luck in their first season. They have eighteen games scheduled with only four home games.

BASEBALL! THE HIT AND RUN BOYS

Girls' Athletics

Girls' athletics started off with a bang this year when approximately 175 Junior, Senior, and C. P. Sophs came out for hockey. We started the ball rolling right away electing Helene Hauck as manager and Jess Sweetland captain for Seniors; Mary Hammond and Claire Hermans, manager and captain respectively, for the hardhitting Juniors; and not to forget those up and coming C. P. Sophs, Pat O'Neil and Flora Campbell were chosen as leaders. Our Senior girls did themselves proud in winning five games, losing one, and tying one.

The Juniors and Seniors played Regional Juniors and Seniors in our first game. The Seniors won 4-0 and the Juniors tied 1-1. In a return meet with Springfield the Seniors tied 1-1 and the Juniors won 3-0. The only other out of town team played was Hillside whom the Seniors met and beat 2-1. Interclass games started with Seniors beating afternoon Sophs 3-1. Then the Seniors went on to beat the C. P. Sophs 2-1 and the Juniors 2-0. But at the close of an otherwise perfect season our ever fast Seniors were overcome by the Alumnae in a close match of 4-3.

Each year six girls are chosen to attend the North Jersey Field Hockey Association to compete with girls sent from fourteen other schools for places of honorary teams. On November 3, at Chatham, New Jersey, found backfield players, Dolores Kem, Jessie Sweetland, and Charlotte Haynes; forward line players, Pat Kennet, Janet Hoos, and Jeanne Gerndt; and alternates, Ruth Simmons and Ella Ripley in the competition—representing Union's best in hockey. Charlotte Haynes made the first team while Jeanne Gerndt and Dolores Kem were put on the second team.

THE STATE CHAMPS

THE SCREAMING SIRENS

THE SIRENS!

Right at the time hockey was organized girls for Umpires Club were called. The name of this club explains itself. These girls were drilled upon the rules and regulations of hockey in order to call fouls and violations. Flora Campbell and Claire Hermans were chosen as managers for the club. As each new sport came up girls were called upon and learned the regulations in order to referee. Better and more orderly games were due to the officiating of these girls.

In January basketball was started. Captains and managers were chosen and after several practices, teams were picked from each class. This year the only out of town teams played were Regional and Linden. Both the Juniors and Seniors succumbed to Springfield with the scores of 18-11 and 44-14 respectively. However, we fared better with Linden. Our Seniors won with the score of 21-14, the Juniors 20-9, but the Sophs were beaten 30-21. Inter-class games started with the Seniors beating the C. P. Sophs 20-19 and C. P. Sophs in turn beating the Juniors 23-14; then the Juniors outclassed the Seniors 22-9. Finally the Seniors and Juniors beat the P. M. Sophs and Frosh 23-14 and 32-3 in order.

THE BLIND MICE!

Annual foul shooting was conducted along with basketball. Each girl was given a hundred tries. The girls who made the highest records in each class competed against each other and the best foul shooters of the school were decided upon.

As soon as weather permitted baseball began. Teams were chosen and, as years before, inter-class games and a few out of town fan-fares were played. On the whole our Senior girls did fairly well.

All in all the girls who went out for any of the activities offered by Mrs. Julian not only received points toward their awards, but enjoyed many grand times.

WASHINGTON WHISPERS

Union's campaign to build a new school was brought to a new high yesterday when Miss Geraldine Borok delivered a speech before the Women's Club of Townley. Her speech was done entirely in poetry. She caused quite a sensation in her odd manner, but she said, "to appeal to a poetry lover is an appeal on a higher plane."

United States Senator Michael Bury introduced a plan into Congress which would terminate all homework given by any teacher in the United States. Said Senator Bury, "Through experience I have discovered homework to be a waste of valuable time. Why keep America's younger generation cooped up in a dark room with no companion but 'The Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire'? Besides, homework makes it impossible to develop the mind through such channels as 'Dick Tracy' and 'Terry and the Pirates', which go on the air precisely the time children are doing their homework."

Senator Bury's program met with some opposition when Representatives Griffen and Gentile led a filibuster to prevent debate on the measure. Their recitations included such immortal classics as "Ode to a Worm", "Who Stabbed Who With a Frozen Dish Cloth?" and an essay written by Rep. Gentile himself on "World Wide Public Education On Government As A Potential Preventative of Future Wars". Both Representatives feel that homework is an essential part of education. Besides, they don't listen to "Dick Tracy"—they prefer their idol, "Mighty Mouse".

UNION ALUMNI CHOSEN FOR LEADS IN "MACBETH"

Perrel F. Saltneck, famed Broadway producer, has announced the names of the people who have been selected to play the leads in his newest production of Shakespeare's immortal "Macbeth". Through some unforeseen coincidence, his selections are all alumni of Union High School, Union, New Jersey. Miss June Wolf, star of stage, screen, and television, will play the female lead of Lady Macbeth. Miss Wolf's very close friend and former classmate, Edgar Klughardt, is to play the male lead of Macbeth. Another classmate, Paul Hartmann, will play the part of Banquo in the production. Also in the cast are the Misses Frances Wagner, Hilda Zahn, and Florence McGhee. Since the leads in this play are being played by alumni of Union High School, "Macbeth" should prove to be a big success on Broadway.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

An erstwhile Union student, George Toenes, a clarinet virtuoso, is scheduled to play at Minsk's famous Russo-American Restaurant, July 3, 1956. Mr. Toenes, a famed musician who has played with the All-Girl Symphonic Orchestra, the Philadelphia All-Reed-Blowers Orchestra, and the Orchestra for Hubba-Hubba Boys, has now been honored to play with the great Corn Cobblers. Mr. Toenes specializes in playing "Magott's" famed composition in the key of U, scratch it, while turning the pages with his toes. This feat can only be accomplished by a former Union student.

Sir Richard Rockstroth played a bass drum solo on the night of June 13, 1956, at Carnegie Hall. The former Union student was bass drummer in the Union Band. Sir Rockstroth's solo consisted of a superb two-measure cadenza. During the performance he broke the side of the drum and had to limit his solo to one beat. Considering his talent, and not his strength, he received a big hand from the audience, consisting of his father, his mother-in-law, and Mr. Nick. We are greatly honored that a Union alumnus has played at Carnegie Hall with such great success.

Ruth Simmons, Lou Wensch, and Richard Shellmer, three former Union High students, played at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Heinz. Miss Simmons played a saxophone solo of "I'll Be Glad When You're Dead, You Rascal You." The selection made a big hit with the mother-in-law. The Messrs. Wensch and Shellmer played a duet on the trumpet. This performance would have sounded very well but the boys only had one trumpet. They played "Roll Out the Barrel", one rolling it while the other pushed.

CHIT'S CHATTER

Miss Ingeborg Probst is currently on a dancing tour throughout the European countries. Miss Probst recently gave a command performance for the King and Queen of England, who were very impressed with her performance. While at Court, Miss Probst spent a pleasant afternoon teaching the children of the royal family how to dance.

Miss Roberta Buob, a graduate of Union High School, has been currently dancing with the Rockettes at Radio City Music Hall in New York. It has been rumored that Cecil B. DeSmill has offered her a contract with the Hollywood Motion Pictures to star as a second Eleanor Powell, but as yet, this hasn't been confirmed.

SPORTS SHORTS

Norm Ottley, star forward of DePaul University, who broke the all-time Madison Square Garden scoring record in a victorious game against New York University last February, is spending the summer as a representative of the Fuller Brush Company in Union County.

It was announced today that Frank Eckert, competing in the National Open Golf Tournament at Miami Beach, nosed out Byron Nelson with a 3 under par 67. Eckert's 72-hole score was 270.

At Fenway Park, Boston, yesterday, thousands witnessed the brilliant two-hitter of Dean Cassell, hurler of the Boston Red Sox, against the New York Yankees. The Sox won 2-0.

Plowing over the goal line in a last minute play, Walt Leibowitz, husky fullback of the Washington Redskins, brought victory to his team in a game with the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds, November 23. Today Leibowitz signed a two-year contract to assist Hughie Devore at St. Bonaventure's College, Olean, New York. Walt will coach the backs.

In the most exciting race of the season, Jack Kern, representing the Union A.C., last week won the Wanamaker Mile at Philadelphia. Jack, after being paced for most of the distance by Les MacMitchell, put on a terrific burst of speed on the last lap to cross the finish line first.

SOCIAL SCENES

Last night the biggest social event of 1956, the Social Ball of Professional Men and Women of New Jersey, was witnessed by thousands. The brilliant glitter of the chandeliers reflected on the colorful gowns and the sparkling jewels of guests. Listed below are some of the guests who attracted the eyes and interest of the crowd:

... Miss Gloria Bonanno, featured singer at the Metropolitan Opera House, sang an aria from Romeo and Juliet, and was accompanied on the piano by Lynne Waitz.

... Charles Herzog and his wife were seen swaying to the music of the Farmer Rhythmners. Charles supervised the scenery of the affair in his own wood shop.

... Another distinguished guest was Dick Reagan, well-known lawyer. He was seen chatting with Lee Hauck, who is teaching Kindergarten in Hicks High.

... the Medical Profession was also well represented.
